

Opinion

by Stephanie Yeagle

View Author Profile

syeagle@ncronline.org

Follow on Twitter at @ncrSLY

Join the Conversation

September 26, 2017

Share on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

NCR posted a lot of new content yesterday, so here is a recap of those stories ICYMI:

Barbara Blaine, founder of sex abuse survivor group SNAP, dies

Scholars say correction of Francis for 'heresy' marked by hypocrisy, lack of signatories

Fr. Stanley Rother beatified in Oklahoma City

Guatemalan people celebrate Fr. Stanley Rother's beatification

Supreme Court cancels travel ban hearing as new restrictions announced

Vatican, former Vatican auditor give differing accounts of resignation

Other news on NCR and Global Sisters Report:

Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons opens for signature

Pressure causes Madonna University center to cancel talk by theologian M. Shawn Copeland

Collaborating north-to-south, sisters exemplify changing world demographics
Religious sisters on mainstream 'teleradyo' in Philippines

Column: Are religious women needed?

Advertisement

In other news around the web:

Colin Kaepernick vs. Tim Tebow: A tale of two Christians on their knees

Nashville church shooting: The tragedy as told through heroes and survivors

Kansas inmate says prison force-fed Christianity to prisoners, lawsuit claims

Far-right party wins seats in German parliament for first time in decades

Jews around world alarmed by far-right breakthrough in Germany

Mexico quake leaves country's historic churches battered