

Opinion

by Tracy Abeln

View Author Profile

tabeln@ncronline.org

Join the Conversation

August 9, 2019

Share on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

The Copy Desk Daily highlights recommended news and opinion articles that have crossed the copy editors' desks on their way to you.

Say what? Pew survey shows majority of Catholics don't believe in 'Real Presence'

Young Voices columnist Jocelyn Sideco writes: "I imagine Jesus saying to me: 'So, you've come all this way to listen to my teachings on nonviolence and love, but you find yourself literally stepping on people and judging them along the way just to get closer to me.' "

Sr. Jayne Helmlinger, new LCWR president, draws on analytical and intuitive sides.

These Catholics broke into a nuclear base. Now they're asking a judge to drop the charges. The Kings Bay Plowshares 7 activists are charged with three felonies and a misdemeanor and face up to 25 years in prison each for trespassing on a U.S. Navy base in Georgia.

Sr. Virginia Herbers: How is it that two people who know each other well can look at the same thing and have completely different experiences of it? Having good intentions to come to an agreement simply isn't enough.

Want to keep updated with the latest news from the National Catholic Reporter? Sign up here for news updates by email — including one that will send you Copy Desk Daily every Monday through Friday.

Advertisement