What can a person of faith do to protect God's creation?

LivingtheChange.net offers a simple way to respond to this question.

Focused on individual action, this multi-faith, world-wide initiative extends an invitation to commit to living sustainably. The group invites signatures to a statement titled "Walk on Earth Gently".

Some excerpts: "We represent the world's family of spiritualities, faiths and religions who share a profound gratitude for our precious planet..." Our misuse of Earth's generosity, while improving conditions for many, is not improving them for all and is fraying the web of life... As religious and spiritual leaders ... we come to you with an invitation to embark on a journey towards compassionate simplicity for the sake of the climate, the human family, and the community of life. Our spiritualities and traditions offer wisdom about finding happiness in a purposeful life, family and friendships, not in an overabundance of things. The world needs such wisdom. We invite you to join the many others willing to walk this path..."
