

Spirituality

Both towers of the World Trade Center in New York City burn after being hit by planes Sept. 11, 2001. Nearly 3,000 people died in the collapse of the towers, at the Pentagon and in rural Pennsylvania when terrorists attacked the United States using commercial airplanes on 9/11. (CNS/Reuters/Sara K. Schwitek)

by Stephanie Yeagle

View Author Profile

syeagle@ncronline.org

Follow on Twitter at @ncrSLY

Join the Conversation

September 1, 2021

Share on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

In less than two weeks, we will recognize the 20th anniversary of Sept. 11, 2001, when four commercial airliners were hijacked mid-flight by al-Qaeda terrorists, colliding with the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, with one crashing in a field in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. Almost 3,000 people were killed.

The U.S. launched its war on terror in response, officially ending it just days ago as President Joe Biden pulled all troops from Afghanistan.

The war on terror may be over, but the memory of that day will forever live on. We would like to hear your story — including how your faith may have helped you on Sept. 11, 2001, and after.

Please share your thoughts with us below on this confidential form.

Loading…

Advertisement

This story appears in the Sept. 11: 20 Years Later and Tell Us feature series.